For what its worth, I sent this to Karla just now. I don't think it will make a difference as they seem intent on getting this out the end of june, good bad or indifferent. I haven't heard anything about the briefing – except from Stephanie at the retreat.

Karla,

Just to let you know, our folks got the Admin Draft yesterday afternoon (June 3rd) with a deadline of June 10th for comments. We will do the best we can with a review period of one week for this massive document.
